Nadine Saucedo

Hometown:
Hinckley, Illinois

Family Members:
Kirk (fiance); Peter, Olivia &
Elliott (children)

What is your favorite childhood memory? Camping with my folks/sisters.

If you could play any sport professionally, what would it be and why? Tennis. I love the apparel.

Do you have a nickname? How did you get it? My Grandfather. He thought Nadine was too big of a name for a little girl.

What is your proudest accomplishment? Raising my three children on my own.

What did you want to be when you were a child? A nun. But then I watched Wimbledon on TV and decided I wanted to be a tennis player.

If you could choose to do anything for a day, what would it be? Sit on a blanket in the middle of the woods and just listen, smell, and feel nature.

If you could go back in time, what year would you travel to? The time when there was no personal computers and cell phones and you actually wrote people letters ...ON PAPER!
