If you could travel anywhere, where would it be? The Galapagos Islands. Why? So much nature there, it’s not easy to get to, and it’d be unlike any other experience.

What is your favorite childhood memory? I figure skated for 12 years, so much of my time was spent on the ice, at ice rinks, at individual or team coaching lessons, or traveling to competitions.

If you could live anywhere, where would it be? Costa Rica. Why? The weather is amazing, it’s affordable, it’s on the coast, and the country is working toward very sustainable practices.

Would you rather ride a bike, ride a horse, or drive a car? Ride a bike. The adrenaline you get from trying not to die while cycling next to moving vehicles is a rush like none other. But in all seriousness, I see so many different sights while out on a bike. I get to take in the fresh air, and it helps me appreciate my surroundings.

Would you rather win the lottery or work at the perfect job? I’d rather win the lottery to have the resources to afford the fun things to do outside my job!

What’s your favorite type of foreign food? I love Mediterranean and Middle Eastern cuisines. Full of vegetables and fresh ingredients. Oh, and the hummus. Can’t forget the hummus!
